Riverside's Web Site Named 4th Best City Site in the Country

RIVERSIDE, CA – Not only is surfing the web at the City of Riverside easy, the site provides helpful information and is innovative, according to Government Technology and the Center for Digital Government.

Today, Riverside was named as having the 4th best web site among cities in the United States. Riverside was recognized as part of the 2011 Best of the Web awards program.

"Innovation is a top priority for Riverside, the City of Arts & Innovation" said Mayor Ron Loveridge. "A dynamic and easily accessible website is crucial for successful 21st century city governments and we are proud to have received this award in recognition of those efforts."

Best of the Web spotlights the top 10 state, county and city Web portals throughout the United States each year that demonstrate the highest levels of innovation, functionality and efficiency. The portals are judged by a panel of experts on a wide range of categories, including site accessibility, innovation, cost-savings, ease of use and exceptional service to the public.
